

SAMPLE ADS

As with any business, advertising is the key! Wherever you advertise, stop and consider who will be reading this ad. What type of person reads this magazine, or newspaper? Is it the type of person I would want in my business? Would they come here to look for a travel package? Would they come here if they were looking for a home-based business? It is important to be 'Target Specific' in your ad copy! If you want lazy people to call you then advertise 'we do all the work for you'. You get the picture, right?

Honestly, most free ads and many classifieds do not have quality persons rushing to find a lucrative business in the ad section. The following ads are listed from best to good! When placing your ads be alert to various changes the advertising company may wish to make, if they edit it too much you will lose the effect the ad should have. Also, you may wish to include your Flash Business Presentation Site in the ad!
